Describe the nominee's outstanding achievements around social justice with the view that everyone deserves equal economic, political and social rights and opportunities, particularly those in the greatest need. Explain why your nominee deserves this award and what sets them apart from the rest?

Clearly illustrate the impact this person has had in their community, working toward improving the lives of others. Please provide any supporting material which may be relevant. Example: Letters of support, newspaper articles, other media attention, reports and other forms of recognition.

All nominations will be reviewed and adjudicated by the CUPE Local 374 executive board members.

Award recognition will be posted publicly and will include information about the outstanding work that award winner has done and may include a photo and/or video of the winner.

Please submit nominations by email to admin@cupe374.ca no later than 4:30 pm on October 31, 2020. The award winner will be announced in November on our website (www.cupe374.ca), Facebook and Instagram pages.

Kim's last words to everyone ♥
